Introduction to Indian folk-dance forms – Dance forms of Kerala (emphasis on Thiruvathirakali)

HTCS Education is introducing a Discover India: Performing Art Series, a focused series of sessions to increase awareness of Performing Art Forms originating from India. These sessions will help explore the vast cultural landscape of India through folk dances, bringing forward the rich history, heritage and practices.

THIRUVATHIRAKALI, a very popular and graceful dance of Kerala, is performed by women during the festive seasons like Thiruvathira and Onam.

This Performing Art Series is a 6-week concentrated course which will include theory, demonstrations of music and dance from Kerala.
